

APPANOOSE COUNTY HISTORICAL SOCIETY

FALL NEWSLETTER

Be sure to attend the Appanoose County Historical Society's 2nd Annual Haunted History Tour! This wonderful walking tour is designed to revive awareness in our local history and remind our residents of the rich heritage of our county. The tour will lit by 1000 luminaries, lanterns, and candles, and will visit 10 locations in the cemetery, where various local historians and speakers will tell the stories of those significant residents.

This year we will visit eight graves and also stop at the Arch of Remembrance and the Chapel to hear about their history as well.

We would like to say a big THANK YOU! the local boy scouts, for making our luminaries and Chapter D PEO for serving refreshments. And most of all, thanks go out to our re-enactors and story tellers—without them, there would not be a tour!

Remember - Dress for cool weather!

Criminal History Day 2006

On June 17, the old Appanoose County Jail was the scene of Criminal History Day - an awareness and fund-raising event for the Appanoose County Historical Society. There were tours of the old jail and sheriff's residence, a murder mystery scavenger hunt, a very successful celebrity jail and bail, and a great trolley tour of infamous locations throughout the area.

Gerald Banks shared his stories of his time as the Appanoose County Sheriff, to the delight of the crowd, and visitors viewed new displays on the life and times of Centerville natives Earl Gaughenbaugh, former Appanoose County Sheriff, and the designer of the Tommy Gun, Oscar Payne.
